Under the Open Meetings Act, I call the February 5th, 2020, Regular Open Meeting to order. Commissioners Bocanegra, Oliva, and Kimbrel, are with me in Chicago. We are also joined by Commissioner Michael Carrigan, who was appointed by Governor Pritzker on January 31st of this year.

Commissioner Carrigan, welcome to the Commission.

So we now have a quorum.

Commissioner Carrigan has indicated that he will be abstaining from all votes today.

Commissioner Carrigan, is that correct?

COMMISSIONER CARRIGAN: That is correct.

CHAIRWOMAN ZALEWSKI: Thank you. Please let the voting record reflect his abstention in all votes going forward for today's meeting.

We have no requests to speak.

We will now move on to our Transportation Agenda.

There are no edits to the January 9,

This concludes our Transportation Agenda.

Judge Teague Kingsley, do we have any other matters to come before the Commission?

JUDGE TEAGUE KINGSLEY: No, Madam Chairman.

CHAIRWOMAN ZALEWSKI: Thank you.

I just wanted to talk a second to again welcome Commissioner Carrigan. As I mentioned, Governor Pritzker appointed Governor -- or, excuse me -- Commissioner Carrigan to a five-year term on January 31st, 2020.
Most recently, Commissioner Carrigan served as the president of the Illinois AFL-CIO. He was an officer of the AFL-CIO for more than 19 years, including seven years as secretary-treasurer prior to becoming president.

He started his career as a journeyman wireman in -- with Decatur-based IBEW Local 146 in 1978, spending the next 22 years rising through the ranks, becoming a business agent and finally its business manager and secretary. His impressive background includes his service on several state and regional and national boards and councils. Commissioner Carrigan brings a wealth of experience that will be an asset to the Commission.

We welcome him and the unique perspective he will bring to the Commission.

Do any other Commissioners have any other business to discuss or would like to say anything else?

COMMISSIONER KIMBREL: I'd just like to take a moment to welcome you as well, Commissioner Carrigan. I think that it's very important that your presence in the Springfield office, it will be great for the morale of this Commission. So, although we do visit the Commission for those meetings that are scheduled there, it's different when you have a commissioner there. So I know the Springfield office is ecstatic that you're here. So welcome.

CHAIRWOMAN ZALEWSKI: Anything else?

(No response.)

CHAIRWOMAN ZALEWSKI: Hearing nothing else and without objection, this meeting stands adjourned.

Thank you.

(Whereupon the above matter was adjourned.)
