

Exhibit 8

Case No. 03-0681
AN 8
Witness _____
Date 1/21/04 and

Shirine Kazemi

A&N Energy Systems, Inc.

Secretary / Treasurer

Co-founded A&N for the sole purpose to study, develop, design the McLean County LFGTE project. Involved in all facets of project research and development, design and scheduling, budgeting and forecasting, and permit and application submittals. Engaged in all field work including field preparation and layout, gas well installation, and temporary pipe installation. Responsible for the day to day cost accounting and project schedule.

Energy Developments, Inc.

Operations Assistant

Responsibilities included all aspects of LFGTE project start-up, operations, and reporting. Ensure seamless day to day operations for six LFGTE project sites totaling over 40MW including site staffing for coverage based on a 24-hour day, 7 days each week. Submit monthly and quarterly gas compliance reports for four LFGTE sites in Ohio. Responsible for monthly production and expense reports and tracking overall Operations budgets as well as individual sites. Provide for administrative support for USA and global operations.

Advantage Management Group, Inc.

President / Owner

Responsibilities included cost development and site operations implementation of budgets, purchasing and administration for four projects totaling 16 MW. In charge of submitting for an insurance claim for a New York LFGTE site destroyed by fire. Submittal resulted in 100% recovery on claim. In charge of sale of salvageable assets.

MKTG, Inc.

Project Associate

Responsibilities for this data collection company included daily data reports to clients, ensured appropriate demographic and geographic distribution of data collection, performed analyses of projects for future costing to attain profit margins in excess of 15%, time and resource management.

Cornell University

Undergraduate Program Assistant

Designed and implemented a survey for the Agriculture and Economics Curriculum Review. Collected and organized research data. Prepared university enrollment graphs and presentations for budget meetings.

Education

BS Business Management and Marketing, Cornell University 1994