AFFIDAVIT OF CARLA FLEMING

I, Carla Fleming, on oath state as follows:

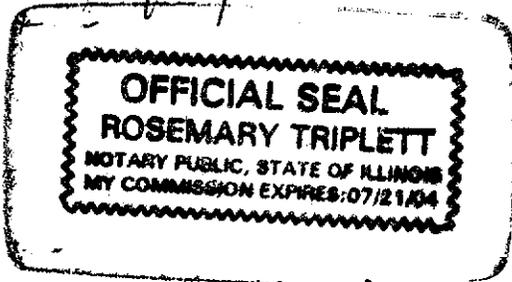

1. I am Attorney Rosemary A. Triplett's secretary
2. I called the ALJ, to explain to her that Attorney Triplett was very ill and would not be able to appear at the hearing and if a continuance could be granted she stated that Triplett knew this before now and someone has to appear.
3. I call the other attorney and she said that she doesn't believe a word that comes out of Triplett's mouth.
4. I arrived at the hearing at 2:20p.m. and there was no one around. I ask the receptionist about the cases and she said that it was a 2:00p.m. and I told her that one case was at 2:00p.m. and the second case was at 2:20p.m. and the third case was at 2:40p.m.. She looked at her schedule and she said you are right. So she phoned the ALJ. Then I waited for a while. The receptionist said she might be out to lunch. I told the receptionist that I will wait until she comes back.
5. When the ALJ came back around 3:30p.m. from lunch I was introduced to her with the case numbers by the receptionist. She stated that all of those cases were seen already. I told her that one case was at 2:00p.m. one case was at 2:20p.m. and the last case was at 2:40p.m,. She went to check the board and she said you are right that case is at 2:40p.m. let me go an put my stuff down and get the files and I will be right back. I explained to her again that Attorney Triplett is very ill. She said counselor must be very sick to send someone down here who is not a lawyer. Then she told me that she would not dismiss the cases. She had to send them over to the Commerce Commission and they will notify counselor.

Affiant further sayeth naught
