Dear Administrative Law Judge Moran:

My name is Edward Davenport; I am on the Board of Directors of A Little Bit of Heaven which is a non profit organization. I am the name holder of A Little Bit of Heaven People's energy/gas bill which is located at 11321 South Wentworth Ave, Chicago Illinois 60628. I am greatly concerned about this high gas bill at this organization; I had already given permission for Laura Braxton to discuss and handle all concerns relating to the people's energy bill. I gave this permission to people's energy before however I'm now asking to be substituted for Laura Braxton concerning this complaint (docket number 06-0023). I still give Laura Braxton permission to make all decisions concerning this situation.

I have not sought an attorney because I had no knowledge that I, Laura Braxton or A Little Bit of Heaven would need one. It was my understanding that the Illinois Commerce Commission would be the decision makers for this matter. I was furthermore informed that two hearings were held before it was requested that we get an attorney. I have every intention on being present at the hearing on Wednesday, July 19, 2006 at 10:00 am to represent the organization that I believe in and stand by 100%.

In closing I would just like the record to show that I do not reside at 11321 South Wentworth Ave, Chicago, Illinois 60628 where A Little Bit of Heaven is located, neither am I there for any day to day activities. I have limited knowledge of when people's gas meter readers were in the facilities to get a reading or change the meters. My knowledge of this on going situation has been thru board meetings where I have been present. This is why Mrs. Laura Braxton, the CEO and president of A Little Bit of Heaven was given sole authority over this account. Thank you for your continued concerns to this matter. I would appreciate that this case is not dismissed because I feel A Little Bit of Heaven is justified in their complaint, and I'm concerned that this matter would be heard fairly.

Sincerely,

Edward Davenport
