

EXHIBIT A COMPENSATION

This compensation was figured by applying the compensation contained in Sections 5, 6 and 7 of this Agreement, and applies only to the original Parties to this Agreement. The utilization of these formulas by any other Third Parties or Persons will require adjustments to reflect that Third Party's or Person's profiles and its adjusted compensation. Profiles may include, but are not limited to, exchange access lines, customer counts within the exchanges, subscriber counts by calling plans, derived originating traffic volumes, derived terminating patterns, and percent participation relative to the aggregate participation within each exchange.
