

Mark T. Biernacki
City Manager
City of DeKalb, Illinois

Summary of Qualifications

Municipal management professional with over 25 years of progressively responsible experience in local and regional city management, land use planning, zoning, economic and community development and building/code administration.

Employment History

- City Manager, City of DeKalb, Illinois (2/04 to present)
- Community Development Group Director, City of Elgin, Illinois (1/99 to 2/04)
- Community Development Director, City of DeKalb, Illinois (4/89 to 12/98)
- Asst. Planning Director, Fairbanks North Star Borough, Fairbanks, Alaska (9/85 to 3/89)
- City Planner, City of Roswell, New Mexico (2/83 to 8/85)
- County Planner, DeKalb County, Illinois (6/81 to 1/83)
- Planning Intern, City of Elgin, Illinois (5/80 to 5/81)

Professional Experience

- Management, administration, and supervision of mid-sized municipalities (currently 225 employees, $25 million operating budget)
- Personnel, bargaining unit and employee relations
- Intergovernmental cooperation and coordination
- Policy recommendations and implementations
- Fiscal management and budgets
- Citizen outreach and communication
- Current planning
- Long range planning and urban design
- Current planning, zoning and subdivision administration
- Development negotiation
- Tax increment financing
- Community and economic development programs
- Building and property maintenance code enforcement and administration

Education

B.S. May, 1980 and M.S., August, 1985, Urban/Economic Geography, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois

404-0085

Joel C. Maurer

Education and/or certifications:

BS Civil Engineering, University of Illinois 1976

Member: American Society of Civil Engineers, American Public Works Association, Illinois Professional Engineers Society, Illinois Association for Floodplain and Stormwater Management

Registration:

Professional Engineer ( Illinois, Iowa)
Certified Floodplain Manager

Experience:

- July 2004-Present

City of DeKalb

City Engineer/Director of Engineering; Administering all engineering services and coordinating consultants for public works construction, reviewing development activities, and advising and implementing all traffic related improvements

- January 2004-July 2004

City of DeKalb, Illinois

City Engineer/Acting Director of Public Works; Administering a 50 person department, including Divisions of Airport, Engineering, Street Operations, Water Resources, and Information and Technology

- 1985-2003

City of DeKalb, Illinois

Civil Engineer I working in the Public Works Department 1985-1996; Assistant City Engineer, Engineering Division Head for Public Works Department 1996-2003

Responsibilities include the supervision of 5 employees, design of various municipal infrastructure improvements, manage consultants for design of capital infrastructure or building remodels, review and advise concerning designs of private site or subdivision development, undertake traffic engineering studies and safety recommendations, and handle floodplain and drainage related problems.

- 1983-1985

McClure Engineering project manger

Design and construction management of various public and private infrastructure improvements for Villages, State offices, airports, sanitary districts and developers.

- 1977-1983

Civil Engineer for City of Bettendorf, Iowa

Design and construction inspection of various public infrastructure improvements.

T04-0085