Dr. Tierney, a Managing Principal at Analysis Group, is an expert on economics, regulation and policy in the electric and gas industries and utility sector. She has consulted to business, industry, government, non-profit and other organizations on energy markets, economic and environmental regulation and strategy, and energy facility projects. Her expert witness, business consulting and arbitration services have involved industry restructuring, market analyses, wholesale and retail market design, contract disputes, resource planning and analysis, asset valuations, regional transmission organizations, the siting of generation and transmission and natural gas pipeline projects, natural gas markets, electric system reliability, ratemaking policy, and environmental policy and regulation. She has participated as an expert and advisor in civil litigation cases, regulatory proceedings before state and federal agencies, arbitrations, negotiations, mediations, and business consulting engagements.

Prior to joining Analysis Group, she was Senior Vice President at Lexecon. She has also served as the Assistant Secretary for Policy at the U.S. Department of Energy, appointed by President Bill Clinton and confirmed by the U.S. Senate. She was also Secretary for Environmental Affairs in Massachusetts under Governor William Weld, and Commissioner at the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, to which she was appointed by Governor Michael Dukakis. She served as Chairman of the Board of the Massachusetts Water Resources Authority. Previously, she also was executive director of the Massachusetts Energy Facilities Siting Council. She recently served as chair of the Massachusetts Ocean Management Task Force, appointed by Governor Romney. And most recently, she co-chaired the Energy/Environment Working Group for the transition of Governor Deval Patrick.

Dr. Tierney has authored numerous articles and speaks frequently at industry conferences. She serves on a number of boards of directors and advisory committees, including the National Commission on Energy Policy. She is chairman of the board of the Energy Foundation and the board of Clean Air – Cool Planet; a director of Renegy Holdings, Inc. (a biomass to electricity company); a director of the Northeast States Clean Air Foundation, and the Climate Policy Center; and a member of the Advisory Council of the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL), the Massachusetts Renewable Energy Trust Advisory Council, the Environmental Advisory Council of the New York Independent System Operator, and the China Sustainable Energy Program’s Policy Advisory Council. She was previously chair of the Electricity Innovations Institute, a director of Catalytica Energy Systems Inc., a director of the Electric Power Research Institute, a member of the Advisory Council of the New England Independent System Operator, and a director of ACORE (American Council on Renewable Energy). She has taught at the University of California at Irvine, and she earned her Ph.D. and M.A. degrees in regional planning at Cornell University and her B.A. at Scripps College.
