Managerial and Technical Licensing Qualifications

The managerial and technical licensing qualifications for The Utility Management Group are met by Thomas Jankowiak, it's sole owner.

Educational Background

Bachelor of Science Degree
Electronics Engineering Technology
DeVry Institute of Technology
October, 1985

Juris Doctorate Degree
The John Marshall Law School
June, 2000

Managerial Qualifications

Thomas has approximately 14 years of managerial experience. From 1996 to 2000 he managed agent programs in the telecommunications industry. His responsibilities included the successful development and implementation of agent programs, and the recruitment, training and management of agents.

From June, 2000 to January, 2003 he worked for an energy broker, learning the natural gas and electric industry. In January, 2003 he incorporated the Utility Management Group and has been successfully managing UMG since then. Under his leadership revenues have grown approximately 3750% in the past 7 years with a customer renewal rate exceeding 95%.

Technical Qualifications

Thomas has over 9 ½ years of experience in the energy industry. As stated above, he spent 2 ½ years learning the industry under a broker, and has been successfully managing the electric needs of customers for the past 7 years as the principal of the Utility Management Group. In addition to receiving daily and weekly market updates from numerous energy suppliers, Thomas routinely attends energy conferences to keep up with changes in the industry and supplier programs.
