1.0 Narrative

Economic Energy, Inc. was formed by David A. Miller and Craig R. Schuttenberg to meet the electricity needs of businesses and institutions that have a combined demand for all of their locations/electricity accounts of less than 1,500 kW.

2.0 Resumes

2.1 DAVID A. MILLER, PE
President, Economic Energy

EDUCATION

30

MBA University of Chicago 1968, Concentration in Marketing.
BSME University of Illinois 1964.

PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Mr. Miller has successfully assisted clients in the procurement of electricity since the market was deregulated in 1999 and natural gas under de-regulation since 1997. During that time period, Mr. Miller was (and is) President of Energy Choices, P.C., a company that now concentrates on clients with loads greater than 1,500 kW.

Prior to consulting on electricity and natural gas, and for a period of 24 years, Mr. Miller was President of a turnkey design-build company that constructed small power production facilities and cogeneration facilities fired by natural gas, coal, wood and fuel oil.

Mr. Miller is past President (3 years) of the Midwest Cogeneration Association.

Mr. Miller is qualified and does share responsibility in managing the staff of Economic Energy with Craig Schuttenberg.
