

Attachment D

Management Biographies

Juan Pablo Del Real Vázquez
Chief Executive Officer
Bestel USA, Inc.

During last few years Bestel USA, Inc. (Bestel) gained a position as an important carrier in the U.S. In 2008 Bestel was acquired by Grupo Televisa, S.A.B. de C.V. (Televisa), one of the world's largest corporations of massive media communications and entertainment.

As Chief Executive Officer of Bestel, Juan Pablo Del Real is responsible of leading the corporation through a transition and reorganization period, in order to assure Bestel's operational continuity and develop its strategic plan. Recent work has included the successful implementation, operation and convergence of telecommunication services under complex circumstances.

Before working for Bestel, Juan Pablo Del Real developed several projects for Cablevision, S.A. de C.V., another important subsidiary of Televisa that is focused on triple play market (Cable TV, Internet and Telephony services). In this company his main responsibility was to lead a multifunctional team of professionals to meet the financial and operational targets for the telephony service and to create, develop and manage the carrier relations.

Juan Pablo Del Real is a graduate of the Universidad Iberoamericana where he got a Bachelor Degree in Electronic and Communications Engineering. Subsequently he obtained a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México.

Gerardo Mora Domínguez
Chief Financial Officer
Bestel USA, Inc.

As Chief Financial Officer of Bestel USA, Inc. (Bestel), Gerardo Mora is in charge of the utilization and management of the financial resources of the company. His responsibilities, among others, are to obtain the best return of investments, as well as minimizing the cost of financial liabilities. Recent work has included development of strategies and processes necessary for the development of the business.

Gerardo Mora joined Bestel in February 2008 after a successful 8 year career with Televisa, S.A. de C.V. (Televisa), an affiliate of Grupo Televisa, S.A.B., such as Bestel. While with Televisa he lead the company's investment and finance initiatives, including the increase of the profitability of the corporation.

Gerardo Mora is a graduate of the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM) where he got a Bachelor Degree in Actuary. Subsequently he obtained a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the University of Boston.