PETITION TO INTERVENE

Now comes the Illinois Energy Marketers Coalition¹ ("ILEMC"), by its attorney, Joanna Hamrick, and pursuant to 83 Ill. Admin. Code 200.200, for its Petition to Intervene in this proceeding, states as follows:

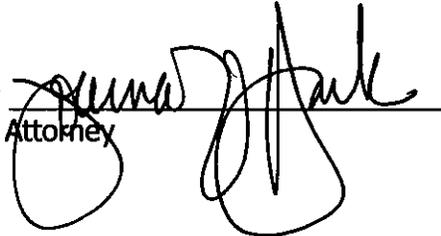

1. ILEMC is an organization of retail electricity suppliers doing business in the State of Illinois and awaiting approval of their license applications.
2. It is likely that the above cited rulemaking will affect the rights and interests of IRCA and its members.
3. In order to protect the rights and interests of ILEMC members, ILEMC should be granted leave to intervene as a party in this rulemaking.

¹ The Illinois Energy Marketers Coalition ("ILEMC") is a group of energy marketing companies that serve residential and small commercial natural gas and electricity customers in many service territories throughout the northeastern and southern United States. For purposes of this filing, ILEMC members include Energy Plus Holdings LLC ("Energy Plus"), and U.S. Gas & Electric, Inc.

WHEREFORE, ILEMC requests that its Petition to Intervene be granted and that it be accorded full party status in this docket.

Respectfully submitted,

By
Attorney
