Addendum A: Organizational Chart

Global Energy Partners

Global Energy Partners is a reseller for public utilities, specifically commercial electricity. It plans on marketing to existing clientele of other corporate entities that Mr. Stejskal has, as well as diversifying within new commercial markets to sell these services to.

 Mark Nakayama has over four years of reselling electricity and natural gas in various deregulated markets, including Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, New York, and Texas. He also has more than three years of experience managing offices, ensuring the quality of all energy and natural gas contracts and a high level of customer service. Mark also interfaces with GEP's various providers regarding sales related matters and relationships.

*Rob Stejskal is the chief financier and owner of GEP. Outside of the financial assets that he brings to GEP, Rob's biggest asset is his immaculate track-record and extensive portfolio of customers in Illinois' restaurant, bar, food retailing, and commercial property market. Rob also has extensive leadership and management experience, as he is the founder and CEO of Global Cash Network (GCN), a supplier and processor of ATM's and credit cards nationwide for the past fifteen years.

Nikke Noelte is the Director of Operations, facilitating the back office functions for both GEP. Nikke is the point-person with GEP's providers, ensuring the quality of contracts and commission payouts. She is also responsible for managing the GEP's office in Arlington Heights and is the point person for compliancy issues. Nikke has over 15 years experience working in regulatory/compliance industries and has been working with Mr. Stejskal and his business ventures for over 10 years.

Lisa McGarry oversees all GEP's finance and accounting responsibilities. She has been a partner of Rob Stejskal's since the inception of GCN, and is tasked with ensuring healthy cashflows, compliancy with state and federal tax codes, maintaining GEP's financials and bank accounts.
