MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO

RESPOND TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Now comes Rick Beckham, pro se, Complainant herein, and request additional time to respond to respondent's Motion to Dismiss. Complainant states as follows:

1. Complainant is not an attorney, untrained in law.
2. Complainant was forced to retire due to the chronic effects of Lyme Disease and other disabilities. Complainant is living on social security benefits.
2. Respondent disconnected complainant's electrical service on August 4, 2014 and have had no to electrical service since.
3. Complainant recently was forced to install home security, battery operated due to a recent burglary where the only items stolen where his foreclosure files.
4. Complainant recently was forced to install a gas heater to keep warm and to keep his water pipes from freezing and bursting. Complainant is proceeding pro se, under extreme duress.

5. There is an evidentiary hearing set for February 19, 2015 where complainant will present evidence that will contradict respondent's claim's stated in respondent's Motion to Dismiss.

WHEREFORE, complainant respectfully request this honorable court to extend the time for responding to respondent's Motion to Dismiss from to January 14, 2015.

Respectfully submitted,

Rick Beckham, pro se
