Authority to include Facilities-Based Local and :
Interexchange Telecommunications Services
in the State of Illinois. :

STAFF'S ANSWER TO THE APPLICATION

Now comes the Staff of the Illinois Commerce Commission (Staff) and in support of its answer to the application of Call One, Inc., dba Call One, also dba Travel Professionals for approval to expand its existing authority to operate as a reseller of local exchange and interexchange services to include providing facilities-based local and interexchange telecommunications services in the State of Illinois.

After reviewing the amended petition, application and other related documents filed by the entity in the abovementioned docketed proceeding, the Telecommunications Engineering Department has no objection to granting the certificate for the additional authority sought by the Company.

Respectfully submitted,
