Reference: Corprew v. Illinois Bell Telephone Company
Docket No. 15-0422

Dear Counselor Huttenhower:

I am now FINALLY in receipt of the recent comprehensive correspondence, titled: VALUABLE INFO FOR VALUED CUSTOMERS mailed to my domicile location on January 29, 2016.

I would be exceedingly and profoundly remiss if I neglectfully failed to assert, my overwhelming disappointment that this comprehensive and thoroughly avowal, was not presented to me during the outset of my AT&T Telephonic initial engagement. Assuredly, this timely, exhaustive and lengthily litigation would have never come to fruition.

Notwithstanding, I shall comply with your article #2 with the enclosed amount of $36.45, for "Plans and Services" for the period from January 7 through February 6, 2016.

I am hopeful that a FINAL and AMENDABLE resolution shall proceeded soon thereafter.

Sincerely,

Warren E. Corprew

DOCKET NUMBER: #15-0522 - Corprew's Additional Direct Testimony 02/26/16.

To the Honorable Administrative Law Judge Yoder:

Inasmuch as this Complaint has endured the necessarily requirements for many months, the procedural process and requirements throughout this lengthily litigating law suit; as a litigant neophyte, Mr. Warren E. Corprew in his sedulous efforts has effectuated appropriately with notary authenticity verification(s), the many correspondences during the entirety of September, 2015, with supportive documentation during the month of July 2015 and continuation to Mr. John Schaub.

The complainant, Mr. Warren E. Corprew throughout his lifetime is not a "practicing legal attorney" for any person to consider in their lifetime.

When an incident arises within my lifetime, through the grace of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ GOD ALMIGHTY, whom I serve unremittingly in TRUTH continually until the day or hour of my death. I endeavor too ameliorate any discord without unnecessary costly litigation amicably.

The specifics to The Illinois Administrative Codes Sections 200.10 - 200.1060 and Subpart (A) is too voluminous, for me to cogitate within the time constraints I am presently besiege with.

When I diligently responded to the "Answer of AT&T Illinois" on November 19, 2015. My ensuing responsiveness was factual, forthright and unambiguous, subsequently addressing concerns without appearing repetitiously.

Therefore my subsequent December 29, 2015 and February 11, 2016 attestations was hopefully, to aver any possible additional information conceivable not averred heretofore. Inasmuch as the subsequent "Valuable info for Valued Customers" sent to me by Counselor James A. Huttenhower, in which I acknowledged my thanks of appreciation within my correspondence of February 11, 2016 (kindly read) with the ensuing check.

Irrespective of the eventual dispositional outcome with respect to this arduousness and toilsome task. My contentment is my overwhelming JOY and peacefulness, in my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ GOD ALMIGHTY!

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 26 day of February 2016.

Sincerely,

Warren E. Corprew
