Good morning Mr. Friedberg,

Thank you very much for your prompt response. However, I believe these responses are non-responsive or incomplete. Please review both the request and your response with your witness and former counsel, Mr. Zelechowski, and make sure you have completely responded to the entirety of the request. For example, the request asks for a website address, and you do not provide one. Website addresses usually begin with "www" or "http" or some sort of internet prefix and they usually end with something like ".com" or ".net." You simply reference "the search bar" and "55ILF1109." This does not adequately explain what Mr. Zelechowski did and certainly does not allow us to recreate what he did. If you prefer to discuss this over the phone, I am in the office all day today and tomorrow (312) 660-7611.

Thank you,
Ronit
