Bob Stallman

President, American Farm Bureau Federation

Bob Stallman, a rice grower from Columbus, Texas, is serving his first term as president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's largest and most influential general farm organization. The 11th president in the organization's 81-year history, Mr. Stallman was elected president on January 13, 2000. He is the first AFBF president to hail from the Lone Star State.

Prior to becoming AFBF President, Mr. Stallman was president of the Texas Farm Bureau, a position he held since 1993. He also served on AFBF's board of directors since 1994.

Mr. Stallman served on various committees and boards during his tenure on the AFBF board of directors, including chairman of the Audit Committee and chairman of the 1998 Farm Economy Committee. He also sat on the International Trade Advisory Committee.

A third-generation farmer, Mr. Stallman also has been selected to serve on various state and federal committees. In 1996, Texas Gov. George W. Bush appointed Mr. Stallman to the Citizen's Committee on Property Tax Relief. That same year, Mr. Stallman was appointed by then-House Agriculture Committee Chairman Pat Roberts to the Commission on 21st Century Production Agriculture, a panel that is conducting extensive hearings on future farm policy alternatives.

Mr. Stallman was the recipient of the Texas A&M "Friend of Agriculture" award in 1999. In 1986, he was chosen "Man of the Year in Agriculture" by the Columbus (Texas) Rotary Club.

A 1974 honors graduate of the University of Texas, Mr. Stallman began farming in 1975. He quickly assumed leadership roles with Farm Bureau, joining the board of directors of the Colorado County (Texas) Farm Bureau in 1977. He eventually served in all officer positions for Colorado County Farm Bureau, including president.

He is a member of the Texas A&M College of Agriculture Development Council and a life member of the University of Texas Ex-Students' Association. He has served as co-chairman and sits on the executive committee of the Texas Agriculture Summit. He also served on the executive committee of the Texas Rice Task Force.

A member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Columbus, Texas, Mr. Stallman has two daughters, Angela, a registered nurse in Temple, Texas; and Kimberly, a student at the University of Houston.

RICHARD D. HARRIS

Chief Administrative Officer & Secretary-Treasurer

Richard D. Harris was elected by the American Farm Bureau Federation's board of directors in March 2000 to the newly created position of Chief Administrative Officer and Secretary/Treasurer, consolidating several former officer positions. He is also secretary/treasurer of AFBF's affiliated companies.

For more than three years prior to joining AFBF, Mr. Harris was Executive Director and Secretary/Treasurer of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation and Senior Vice President/Secretary-Treasurer of that organization's affiliated insurance company.

Harris began his career with Iowa Farm Bureau in 1968 as a county fieldman. He also served as Director of Field Services, Director of Public Affairs and Administrative Director.

A native of Greenfield, Iowa, Mr. Harris has been active in many civic and professional organizations. He is married, and has three children and three grandchildren.

Steve Appel

Vice President, American Farm Bureau Federation

Steve Appel was elected vice president of the American Farm Bureau Federation on Jan. 10, 2001. Mr. Appel, a wheat and barley grower from Whitman County, Wash., also serves as president of the Washington State Farm Bureau.

Mr. Appel became active in Farm Bureau in 1974, serving as chairman of the Whitman County (Wash.) Farm Bureau Young Farmers and Ranchers Committee. He later served three terms as president of the Whitman County Farm Bureau.

Mr. Appel was elected to the board of directors of the Washington State Farm Bureau in 1987, and later served as first and second vice president. He was first elected state president in 1994.

By being elected AFBF vice president, Mr. Appel is the first farmer from the Pacific Northwest to serve as an officer of the organization. As vice president, Mr. Appel also serves on the AFBF executive board and board of directors. He serves as a member of the Farm Bureau Bank board and is a past chair of the AFBF trade advisory committee.

Mr. Appel is a graduate of Washington State University.
